

From Mangunia Bound North

Friday March 12th 1869
This day a good breeze from the S.E. East, steering toward the N.E. East - a little squally, saw three ships, one of them sailing, another under easy sail supposed to be standing down oil, the watch employed making Spungarn ~~Is~~

Saturday 13th This day winds from S. East to East and squally, saw a whaling brig and one schooner of supposed employed making Spungarn, and in other small fish

Sunday 14th Fresh breeze from S. East, steering toward the N.E. East, see nothing find our ship to day to be in the latitude of 21.00 South Longitude, 178.00 East

Monday 15th Blowing fresh from the E. S. East, our ship under easy sail most of the day ship heading toward the N.E. East, passed a sail in the night - end quite rugged

Tuesday 16th Blowing strong from the E. S. East, our ship under close reefed top sails heading toward the N.E. East, a heavy sea running, at 11 o'clock shipped a sea, aft on the ship breaking glass in the daylight, the day end blowing strong some squally

Latitude in 28.06 North
Longitude in 178.06 west
Our ship is once more in good Longitude
Having passed the Meridian of 180.00 - sailing easterly

Mangunia Harbour from North, Cape bears about S. East by South,

Bound to Arctic Ocean

Wednesday March 17th 1869 Thursday 18th
These 48 hours blowing fresh from East to E. S. East accompanied with squalls our ship under close reefed top sails and some of the time under reefed courses our ship heading from North to N.E. East, it is quite rugged see nothing but a few black birds and flying fish find our ship to day to be in the latitude of 23.50 South and in the longitude of 176.50 west

Friday 19th This day a little more moderate wind E. S. East steering N.E. East under reefed top sails and reefed courses, see nothing but a few birds, some of them the tropic bird

Saturday 20th This day it moderated considerably and is good weather, set all sail, steered N.E. East until 1 P.M. when we altered our course to N. West by North, in Horn Island where we intend to stop for logs &c. saw one diamond fish and dolphin

Latitude in 20.09 South
Longitude 175.25 west
Sunday 21st Pleasant S. East trades steering toward the N. West - all sail set saw a few birds and one large shark - Lat in 17.41 South

Monday 22nd East. S. East wind some squally all sail set at 2 P.M. sighted Horn Island bearing N.E. West employed making small rope to bunch mchale line with and other jobs about ship, the day end squally, ship lying off the Island

Latitude in 15.03 South
Longitude 177.46 west

Horn Island