

'Tis a very ancient saying,
 Time will now has proved it true;
 Do unto all your Neighbors
 As you would have them do to you."

But another saying has prevail,
 Of an entirely different hue,
 Be sure and do your Neighbors,
 Or they'll certainly do you."

Bound to Honolulu, Sandwich Islands from the Arctic Ocean

Bound to Sandwich Islands

Monday November 1st - 1869
 This day wind shifted to E. East Steered on the wind towards the S. S. West, pleasant weather employed washing ship inside finished at 5 P.M. the day end Good weather Latitude in, 26.56 North Tuesday 2nd This day beautiful weather, with a moderate breeze from E. East to E. S. East Steering South by West employed washing our ship outside, had one fine bark whale, and pleasant find by observation our ship to be in the latitude of 26.23 North and in the longitude of 153.00 West

Wednesday 3rd This day winds from East to S. S. East, some squally all sail set Steering towards the S. West there is nothing to be seen employed washing whale bone Latitude in 24.56 North Thursday 4th Moderate breezes from East to S. West part of the time squally all sail set to the breeze steering by compass E. S. West See nothing find by observation the ship to be in the latitude of 23.24 North and in the longitude of 154.33 West, Distances from Honolulu about 200 miles, the day end beautiful weather

We expect soon to hear some news from those that are nearest and dearest to us and therefore feel anxious to have our ship at anchor in Honolulu