

Ship in port Honolulu, Sandwich Islands

Saturday November 19th 1869
Good weather all hand to work discharging oil

Sunday 20th Good weather nothing doing

Monday 21st Tuesday 22nd Good weather all hand employed discharging oil. Good weather with the exception of a few showers of rain accompanied with thunder & lightning

Wednesday 23rd Thursday 24th Good weather all hand to work
Loaded all of our oil a little over eight hundred bbls
two ships sailed to day

Friday 25th Good weather all hand to work breaking out ship and fixing the rigger on the land and other small jobs.

= A prayer. =

Selected by Fannie A. Packard.

Ask not for a hoard of gold

To weigh my spirit down,

To make my heart grow hard and cold,
My life a gloomy frown.

= 2 =

Ask not for a modest store,

With chance for healthy toil,

With love increasing more and more,
Life's joyous wine and oil.

= 3 =

Ask not for a mighty name,

For wide-spread power;

Deny not the triumph of fame,

The glory of the hour.

= 4 =

Ask to live life's little span

In whatsoever place,

Knowe simply as a Christian man,

A lover of his race.