

American History

Three of our presidents all of whom participated in the revolution died on its great anniversary the 4th of July viz: John Adams, Thomas Jefferson & James Monroe

Washington when he retired was in the sixty sixth year of his age from 1801 to 1825 the presidential office was filled by Virginians and during the same time except four years the vice president's office was held by New Yorkers

John Adams negotiated the treaty of peace that concluded the war of the revolution

he has never occurred

25
45
70
12
82
93
13
140
255
25
280
35
318
15
64
394
20
6
479