

Monday April 18

Commences with strong breezes from the W & ship by the wind on either tack Cruising 3 sails in sight spoke & gained with the Oriole & Abigail Middle part the same Latter part within the same weather overcast with occasional rain squalls. employed stowing down down sails so ended.

No observations

Tuesday April 19

Commences with rain squalls & overcast weather employed stowing down down sails wind W & ship by the wind on Latter part tack heading Sw. Middle part the same Latter part spoke & gained the ships Oriole & Abigail so ended

Lat by Meridian Altitude
Long by Chronometer

Wednesday April 20

Fine weather these twenty four hours employed putting cutting gear wind by the ship on either tack and sails in sight middle & latter part the same

No observations

Thursday April 21

Begins with moderate overcast weather employed putting cutting gear spoke and gained the Abigail middle part moderate with rain Latter part fine weather on a moderate breeze from Eastward ship on either tack all but set employed setting up rigging fore & aft under the same in sail in sight.

Lat by Meridian Altitude 25, 42 S
Long by Chronometer 16, 57 E

Friday April 22

Commences with fine weather from the Eastward steering N by W & employed setting up rigging and sail in sight middle & latter parts overcast down ds

No observations.

Saturday April 23

Commences with fine weather and continues so through the twenty four hours employed breaking out spoke and gained with the Myrae & myth of St. Beaufort 6 men the and making down ds

Lat by Meridian Altitude
Long by Chronometer