

Sunday June 29th 1857.

Commenced with fine weather and light winds. Latter part cloudy with rain. So called this 24 hours.

Monday June 30th

Employed in working on the rigging. Cloudy and rainy, &c. Eleven men on wages &c. So called this 24 hours.

Tuesday July 1st

Employed in working on the rigging. Cloudy and heavy shower of rain. Except men to work on wages. So called this 24 hours.

Wednesday July 2nd

Employed in working on the rigging. Rainy weather &c. Except men on wages &c. So called.

Thursday July 3rd

Employed in setting up rigging for hoisting out. &c. on. Except men on wages &c. So called.

Friday July 4th

Hot and rainy, so that there was nothing done. &c. So called.

Saturday July 5th

Hoisted the ship down and had to let her come up again on account of her leaking. Eight men on. Carpenter to work. So called.

Sunday July 6th

Fine weather and light winds from the N.W. So called.

Monday July 7th

Employed in setting the rigging on board. Men on. Commenced the work, rigging and fitting her. Carpenter to work. So called.

Tuesday July 8th 1857

Hoisted the ship out and had to let her come up again on account of her leaking. Men on. Carpenter to work. So called.

Wednesday July 9th

Hoisted the chains forward of the ship. Then hoisted down again. Continued on of the ship. Most backstayed & got a new one. Men on. Carpenter to work. So called.

Thursday July 10th

Employed in setting the rigging. 13 men on. Carpenter to work. So called.

Friday July 11th

Employed in setting the rigging. 13 men on. Carpenter to work. So called.

Saturday July 12th

Employed in setting rigging &c. 12 men on. Carpenter to work. So called.

Sunday July 13th

Fine weather and light winds from the N.W. So called.

Monday July 14th

Employed in setting rigging 12 men on. Carpenter to work. So called.

Tuesday July 15th

Employed in setting rigging 12 men on. Carpenter on to work. Righted up the ship &c. So called.

Wednesday July 16th

Employed in setting rigging 12 men on. Shipped 6 men. Carpenter to work. So called.