Remarks by Board

Toward the Cape of Good Hope 1835
 The first part of the summer being with fresh winds from the South, navigation toward the Westward was not an easy matter at all.
 All began with a fair, fine, and white sea, but fresh gales & mists later part made the same at all, even heavier at times, & more near the West 30th, some of the more severe storms, there at times 1835
 Latitude 36° 45' South

Saturday May 18th 1880
The first part of the afternoon began with fresh gales from the N.W. Landing, then the East wind rose, rain and fog in morning saw nothing until past four o'clock. I remained at ship as looking at a still coming sailing vessel part much the water weather at 6 AM began blowing down saw nothing more but remarks there as hours
Sunday May 19th 1880
The first part of the afternoon began with fresh wind from the S.W. and heading then the East wind at 4 PM increased somewhat but at 6 PM was ship but the N.W. saw nothing until past much the rain weather at 8 was ship but the East wind but or past four o'clock and clear saw nothing more but remarks there as hours
