

Tuesday Jan^y 19th 1841—

Light winds through the day at noon finished boiling

Wednesday 20th

Long 101.51^h

Commenced with light winds & ends with the same Lat 32° 00' S

Thursday 21st

Light winds through the day & stowed our whale which made 4 a.b.b.

Friday 22nd

First part light winds ends with calms

Saturday 23rd

Light airs middle & latter parts rainy

Sunday 24th

Light winds through the day at 6 AM saw a shoal of sperm whales. the ship running through them did not lower

Monday 25th

Light airs & ends with calms

Tuesday 26th

Calm middle & latter parts much the same

Wednesday 27th

Light winds middle & latter light winds & foggy saw a whales carcass

Thursday 28th

Fresh breezes middle & latter parts light airs

Friday 29th

Light airs & calms through the day

Saturday 30th

Light airs & ends with the same

Sunday 31st

Light airs middle & latter part the same

Monday Feb^y 1st

Light breezes. At 5 AM saw whales lowered. got down to the S.B. one to F.B. one to W.B. & one to the ship alongside

Tuesday 2nd

Lat 30° 00' S Long 102° 15' E

Commenced cutting at sundown lashed down fine weather

Wednesday 3rd

Finished cutting & commenced boiling Light winds today

Thursday 4th

Light winds at 5 AM wind breezing double reefed topsails at midnight finished boiling ends with light winds

Friday Feb^y 5th 1841—

Commenced with light airs continues through the day

Saturday 6th

Calm stowing down oil. At 5 AM saw a shoal of sperm whales lowered & took one to each boat took them alongside

Sunday 7th

Lat 30° 00' S Long 102° 15' E

Nearly calm commenced cutting. at 9 AM saw whales down boats & after a hard scramble got one to the S.B. sundown finished

Monday 8th

Commenced cutting & stowing down at sundown finished began to boil

Tuesday 9th

Fresh breezes & equally took fore & mizzen topsails & jib middle & latter parts light winds thus ends the day

Wednesday 10th

Light winds through the day at noon finished boiling

Thursday 11th

Lat 31° 30' S Long 102° 00' E

Commenced with light winds from SSW & ends thus

Friday 12th

Strong breeze & dragged middle & latter much the same

Saturday 13th

Light winds through the day nothing stirring today

Sunday 14th

Calm with light breezes & ends with calms

Monday 15th

Calm with light winds middle & latter parts the same

Tuesday 16th

Calm with light airs latter part strong breeze & dragged

Wednesday 17th

Calm with strong breezes middle & latter parts the same

Thursday 18th

Calm with light winds latter part light winds thus ends

Friday 19th

Calm with light winds & ends with the same no ends

Light winds & pleasant weather through the day Long 102° 15' E

Saturday 20th

Light winds & pleasant weather through the day Lat 32° 00' S

Long 102° 15' E