

Brig Hopston Whaling in The Atlantic

Hours	H	Bar	Winds	Remarks
2 4		99.6	S W	This day begins with blowing a gail cloudy weather
4 4
6 4
8 4				Middle part squalls of rain
10 4
12 4
2 5				Ends more moderate at 10 A m let whole topsail
4 5
6 5
8 5		99.7	West	All hands employed getting ready for Whaling
10 7
12 7

Hours	H	Bar	Winds	Remarks
2 9		99.8	West	All these 24 hours blowing a strong breeze squalls fine rain
4 9
6 9
8 10
10 11				All hands employed ships
12 12
2 12
4 12				Saw 2 Barques steering to the N. E
6 12
8 13
10 13				Pumps attended to
12 13				Salt oles 35.16

Hours	H	Bar	Winds	Remarks
2 12		99.9	West	Comes in with a strong breeze squalls of rain
4 12
6 12
8 14				Middle part the same
10 14
12 14				Ends with a strong breeze clear fine weather
2 14
4 13
6 13				All hands employed ships
8 13				Duty
10 13				Saw a school of blackfish going to quick
12 13				Salt oles 33.10

Ocean. Abel Delano. Commander 1858

Hours	H	Bar	Winds	Remarks
2 10		99.8	West	Comes in with a strong breeze fine weather
4 10
6 10
8 11
10 11				Middle & latter parts the same
12 11
2 8				at sunset took in sail
4 3				at daylight let all sail again
6 7
8 7				All hands employed ships
10 7				Duty
12 7				Salt oles 31-37

Hours	H	Bar	Winds	Remarks
2 10		99.9	W N W	Begins with a strong breeze fine weather
4 10
6 8
8 6				Middle part the same
10 6
12 6				Ends with a strong breeze squalls of rain
2 6
4 6
6 7				at sunset took in sail
8 7				sunrise let all sail again
10 7				All null on board
12 7				Pumps attended to

Hours	H	Bar	Winds	Remarks
2 5			East West	Comes in with blowing a strong breeze clear fine weather
4 6
6 3
8 3				Middle & latter parts the same
10 3
12 3				at sunset took in sail
2 3				daylight let whole sail again
4 3
6 5				Saw nothing from masthead
8 8
10 8
12 8				Salt oles 31-20