

Brig Hopeton Whaling In The Atlantic Ocean

Hours	to	the	Courses	Winds	Remarks
2					first & middle parts Calm
4					Ends with a strong breeze & much weather
6
8
10					Sunset took in Sail daylight
12					Set all Sail
2					at 6 A M saw three large
4					Spum whales going quick
6					and without success of ash
8					the Ship Levi Starbuck & B sailing
10					0 30 0000 whale Lat 38.12
12

Hours	to	the	Courses	Winds	Remarks
2					Begins with a strong breeze
4					hazy weather
6					middle part blowing heavy
8					in squalls of rain & sharp
10					lightning & thunder at 12
12					midnight the lightning struck
2					the fore top gallmast & lowered it
4					all to pieces daylight sent the
6					fragments down
8					Saw the Ship
10					Levi Starbuck take a large whale
12					alongside ends moderate Lat 37.53

Hours	to	the	Courses	Winds	Remarks
2					Begins with a light breeze
4					clear fine weather
6					Middle part Calm
8
10					Ends with a light breeze
12					cloudy weather
2
4					Sunset took in Sail daylight
6					Set all Sail
8					Saw nothing
10					Lat 38.43
12

U.S. Delam. Commander 1858

Hours	to	the	Courses	Winds	Remarks
2					First part Calm
4
6					Middle part blowing a strong
8					gale Brig lying to under
10					four & after sails
12					Ends the same
2
4					Saw a Humpback Porpoise
6
8
10
12					No Oil

Hours	to	the	Courses	Winds	Remarks
2					Begins with light baffling winds
4					clear fine weather
6
8					Middle & latter parts Calm
10
12					at 9 A M saw several large
2					Spumna Whales separate going
4					to the South East towards five
6					them
8
10					Sunset took in Sail daylight
12					Set all Sail No Oil

Hours	to	the	Courses	Winds	Remarks
2					First part Calm
4
6					Middle & latter parts a light
8					breeze clear fine weather
10
12					Sunset took in Sail daylight
2					Set all Sail
4
6					Saw nothing the last part of
8					these 24 hours at 4.30 boats returned
10					to the Brig without any fish
12					Lat 39.20