

February 1. After the gale which lasted until 4 o'clock this morning the wind came out fair from the N West blowing fresh. But the weather being otherwise discovered one more passenger on board which had turned himself among when we left. His name was Simon Belonging to Bristol and had lost up some things and been put to jail and broke out and got on board of our ship. The Capt put him before the court with the rest of the sailors. They were all acquainted with him. His connections to jail are respected. Lat 38.28 Deal anchoring

Friday 2. The wind remaining in the N West blowing fresh. The ship making 8 knots good, therefore first three themselves to day

Saturday 3. The wind the same but the weather thick. Saw a sail at the Lizard Bound for Europe was supposed

Sunday 4. The wind from the same quarter, weather pleasant. This is the first Sunday out. The passengers and crew being in shaving & washing up getting ready for Religious Services in the quarter Deck. At 2 o'clock the ship bell was tolled, and the passengers & crew assembled. The services was conducted by some of the passengers and lasted about one hour. — No observations

Monday 5. The wind remaining the same and the ship making through the Lizard in a hurry. We have had to single and double reef top sails the last 5 nights it blew so fresh. We have another sail at Lizard, Bound for California it was supposed. The passengers had a meeting before to day to take into consideration some of their grievances the meeting organized and there a Committee consisting of three to address the Captain Albert Sweet, W. J. Silver, George A. Woodson & Providence. The address was drawn up and presented at the meeting the next day, but the Capt had anticipated our movements and dismissed the Capt as far as was possible. We have ourselves in the messes, No observations

Tuesday 6. The wind changed to fair West the wind blowing fresh. Shortened sail until 8 o'clock in the evening with a heavy sea on. In the evening a bright moon light — Lat 36.01 - Long 52.49

Wednesday 7. The wind remains the same with rain & squalls which makes the weather uncomfortable on deck. Lat 35.59 - Long 49.00

Thursday 8. The wind continues in the same quarter blowing fresh. Short all the passengers sea sick. But 8 happened to be recovered as yet, full sea on —

Friday 9. The wind the same rather thick, in the afternoon the wind went down to almost a calm, saw black fish and porpoise — Lat 34.54 - Long 42.35

Saturday 10. The sun rose pleasant to the husband the ship close on the wind. We lost a passenger aboard this morning off the quarter Deck. It was a live chicken — the poor little fellow here to join the ship —

No observations
Sunday 11. The wind blowing fresh from the South East the ship is one fortnight out. The weather is very cold and thick. It is owing greatly to our running so much to the Eastward to strike the N East Gales. This is my Birth Day 38 years of age. Also of my Daughter Emily — Lat 34.00 - Long 42.10

Monday 12. The wind to the Eastward but very light almost a calm, a good night to sleep after being knocked about so much — Lat 32.24 - Long 38.58

Tuesday 13. The wind at the Eastward the day passed saw a brig at the Lizard Bound Home was supposed. We saw two Boats White and a Shark to day — Lat 30.42 - Long 38.14

Wednesday 14. The wind light from the Eastward. But a bit of a change for Peter's time change. The sail quite a
