

Monday 18, These are the Rules, without any mistake
We are getting along grandly - The weather mild and pleasant -

Lat 21.20 Long 80.40

Tuesday 19, The wind and the weather continues the same - Good - and we feel some encouraged

Lat 19.42 Long 82.25

Wednesday 20, The wind and weather fair - We had no Rules in the Atlantic -

Lat 18.09 Long 84.51

Thursday 21, Wind and weather delightful - things move and the old ship plows through it it in grand style -

Lat 16.30 Long 87.18

Friday 22, Wind and weather the same - We have made since last Friday at 12 o'clock 11.10 Miles - a good weeks work -

Lat 14.54 Long 89.37

Saturday 23, Wind the same, and the weather a little hazy, but getting quite warm -

Lat 13.46 Long 91.08

Sunday 24, Wind in the same quarter and the day pleasant, The Capt. has made his appearance on the quarter deck looking much better, we were glad to see him - We had a Fin Back Whale come along inside of ship, and he followed us for half an hour - He was about sixty feet long - We had a grand view of the old fellow - Some of the passengers fired some cold lead at him - But we could not receive any effect -

Lat 12.41 Long 93.01

Monday 25, Wind the same - The weather pleasant and warm - The ship carrying staterails and Bergs all the time. This is what I call fine sailing

Lat 11.24 Long 95.00

Tuesday 26, Wind the same - weather pleasant and the sea smooth - Lat 10.05 Long 97.53 -

Wednesday 27, Wind the same - weather pleasant with a fine moon light evening - Lat 8.32 Long 99.40

Thursday 28, Wind the same, The day pleasant and warm The Surgeon in third Stewards - and Berthold again on deck - Five months out to day and ought to have been in San Francisco But our Bad time of the Plague, and delay in port has put us back, -

Lat 6.42 Long 106.08

Friday 29, Wind the same - the weather good, Saw a ship at the entrance supposed to be a Whaler - We have made in the day at 12 o'clock 10.20 Miles -

Lat 5- Long 103.18

Saturday 30, Wind the same and the weather the same The Gen. Bury in getting up the Rigging and getting of it getting ready for port

Lat 3.37 Long 105.14

Sunday July 1, Wind the same - This is the first of July, and a lovely day it is - The passenger amuse themselves by reading and conversation

Lat 2.42 Long 107.38

Monday 2, Wind the same, and the weather delightful and warm - Sea Bats are again in flock - Lat 1.37 Long 110.12 -

Tuesday 3, Wind the same, and the day - About 4 o'clock in the afternoon we cutshort we passed the line again to the Southward - At which time the ship hauled up to a north by West Course

Lat at 12 o'clock 13 Miles South, Long 113.05

Wednesday 4, This is the 4 of July 1847. and a pleasant day - or a fine - Breeze could not be got up - Nature smiles upon us We all thought of home to day - and the place we spent our last 4 - I little thought one year ago of being in the