

Friday 20, Wind from about the same quarter. Breeze and squally, the Sun out occasionally. This morning back near again, about the last on this voyage I think —

Lat 24.13, Long 124.00 —

Saturday 21, Wind from the South. The weather cloudy and cold. We shall run a good way to the West to get our Lat. etc. there are the prevailing wind at this time of year on this coast —

Lat 25.10, Long 124.16

Sunday 22, Wind the same and so is the weather. We don't like this much we should rather have the wind any other else —

Lat 26.15, Long 124.16

Monday 23, Wind the same only a little stronger, with a rough sea, the weather uncomfortable —

Lat 27.16, Long 126.29

Tuesday 24, Wind the same, the weather the same. This makes three winter in six months —

Lat 28.19, Long 128.36

Wednesday 25, Wind the same, and so is the weather about as usual. Tacked ship and stood in for land —

Lat 29.02, Long 130.00

Thursday 26, Wind the same. Weather cloudy and cold. These northerly winds are very unpleasant to persons that want to get to California —

Lat 30.01, Long 130.30

Friday 27, Wind the same and the weather squally the breeze strong. We had to tack ship and stand to the Westward again —

Lat 30.01, Long 130.30

Saturday 28, Wind the same. Only not so strong. This is tedious work —

Lat 31.00, Long 131.30

Sunday 29, Wind about the same. The weather cloudy and cold. So day we are bent to sea. This going to sea. I am depending upon the winds to arrive where you want to go, I am very uncertain business

We saw a brig at the Southward doing the best she could —

Lat 32.37, Long 133.19

Monday 30, Wind the same, the sky cloudy and squally

Lat 33.00, Long 133.25

Tuesday 31, Wind holds in the same quarter. The weather about the same —

Lat 34.31, Long 134.21

Wednesday 1, Wind the same, and the weather cloudy

Lat 36.07, Long 136.07

Thursday 2, Wind and weather the same. About eleven o'clock we dropped anchor and stood in for land or San Francisco, having got our Lat. We are 15 degrees to the Westward of the Coast. So much for a land wind —

Lat 37.45, Long 137.10

Friday 3, Wind still remain in the old quarter and the weather the same —

Lat 37.11, Long 134.51

Saturday 4, Wind the same, also the weather.

Lat 36.55, Long 132.39

Sunday 5, Wind the same and the weather the same

Lat 36.53, Long 129.55

Monday 6, Wind to the Northward with about 12 knots when it shifted into the westward. The weather foggy as it often is in this current. We made 35 miles of Lat to day which brings us back again into our Latitude which we had lost —

Lat 37.28, Long 127.50

Tuesday 7, Wind from the Westward which is a fine but the weather thick and foggy —

Lat 38.10, etc. Long —

Wednesday 8, Wind the same. We shortened last night expecting to see land which we did about dark. We stood off and on all night it being foggy. In the morning we began to stand in

Thursday 9, Wind here with a nice little breeze. We still standing in to the outer Bay of San Francisco. We had company of the ship, and three brigs in sight all bound in. The weather
