

Cruising on the coast of Japan

Monday First Part. thick and rainy weather July the 6 Latter Part strong wind and squally N° 630 attended with rain some thunder and lightning storm of the fore peaks in the P.M. saw whales near the ship the weather too low to catch them

Tuesday the first Part. the more moderate the made some sail. Middle Part the same N° 631 Latter Part light rain 2 ships in sight saw whales did not lower the whales going quick, steering P.M. better sailed Lat 29.44. Long 142.38

Wednesday commences with light wind July the 8 from the Northward headed to the N° 632 Eastward Middle Part to the Northward the wind from the S.W. Latter Part the same 7 ships in sight, Lat. 29.58 Long 142.38

Thursday commences with a fine breeze from the 9 the system steering to the Northward N° 633 Saw the Ohio blowing the Middle Part strong wind Latter Part squally attended with rain took in the fore and Mizzen top sails the ship in sight. Lat. 30.26 Long

Friday First Part. these 24 hours strong wind July the 10 from a cloudy weather headed to the N° 634 Westward at 8 P.M. the wind moderated set the topsails at 10 heavy squalls took in the topsails rain in Latter Part made some sail. Cloudy

Saturday the Long 142 1/2 East Lat. 30.42 North

Saturday First Part. commences with squalls July the 11 of wind and rain from the Southward N° 635 took in the fore and Mizzen top sails headed to the Westward sailing in P.M. supposed to be the Ohio Middle Part light sail Latter Part light wind from the Southward strong S.W. & employed in fitting fore shows fine weather, Lat 30.37 Long 142.22

Sunday commences with light wind and fine July the 12 weather put the fore shows on set N° 636 them up at 7 P.M. suffered by the wind to S & shortened sail Middle Part lay aback Latter Part more sail stored N° 637 Lat 31.41 Long 143.00

Monday First part fine wind from S & steered by the the 13 wind to the North and East at 8 P.M. tacked to N° 637 the S.W. a great many birds around a plenty of small fish Latter Part light and employed in weathering the hole fine weather No whales, Lat Long Tuesday commences with light wind from the July the 14 Eastward headed to the S & sailed in N° 638 a great number around at 7 P.M. shortened sail Latter Part strong wind and light squally of rain. Soberly reefed the top sails headed to the Southward, Lat 30.37 Long 143.58

Wednesday the first Part. the wind blowing again the 15 from East took in the fore and Mizzen N° 639 top sails Middle Part Latter Part the saw a few sea-harins Lat 30.54

Whales there is none to be seen South East times the season quickly passing away