

Ship Thetis Bowditch towards

" This day calm with brisk trade
" at 11 by S bearing all possible sail
" P M saw a whale breaching he
" Went down and saw him again
" more the later part much the
" same so ends this 24 hours

" This day calm with a fine breeze
" and fine weather steering S W
" by S P M at sundown saw one
" sail on the lee beam bearing all possible
" sail steady sails fore and aft
" so ends this 24 hours

" This day calm with strong trade
" bearing all possible sail fore and
" aft steering S W by S all hands
" employed in ships duty the later part
" raining and strong winds so ends
" this 24 hours

" This day calm with strong winds
" and raining steering S W by S
" at 5 P M took in the lee sails
" all hands employed in ships
" duty the later part much the
" same so ends this 24 hours

" This day calm with light
" winds and rain squalls bearing
" all possible sail steering
" S W by S P M saw two sails
" on the lee beam steering E by
" S so ends this 24 hours

Cape Horn & Sherman Master

" This day calm with light winds
" and fair weather steering S
" W by S at 11 P M raised a
" shawl of hump back whales
" when thought they were sperm
" whales all hands employed in ships
" duty so ends this 24 hours

" This day calm with a fine breeze
" and fine weather steering S W by S
" bearing all possible sail all hands
" in ships duty so ends this 24 hours

" This day calm with light winds
" and fair weather steering S W by S
" bearing all possible sail lat S
" lat 26 S all hands employed in ships
" duty the later part foggy and
" rainy so ends this 24 hours

" This day calm with squalls and rain
" took in the tight sails and clut
" down the topsails fore and aft
" steering S W by S the later
" part came all hands employed
" in ships duty so ends this 24 hours

" This day calm with calm weather
" steering S W by S P M let the " sails all down on the caps
" at night set the sails fore and
" aft the later part the same all
" hands employed in ships duty
" so ends this 24 hours

" This day calm with a fine
" breeze