it shook the hold Island up in the town the in the bustle up in a great many places the water flew up 40 feet high in the middle of the town and large cracks run through the town the church fell down and a great many of the houses and all of the sparigars down and there these marra bones when fell it a great many times in course of the night it shook the shipping so in the harbor that you could not stand on these decks and the men on the fell down the in the shook at that degree it never was seen before on the Island to be so heavy since 1824 it threw up fish out of the goan
