

Whip Isaac Howland

Friday
October
7th 1836

These 24 hours winds light weather seas and sea smooth A ship in sight to the leeward watch employed making A Flying Jib on Sat by Obs 6.00 South

Saturday
October
8th

Fresh trades and stem beating to windward nothing in sight Sat by Obs 5.30

Sunday
October
9th

Pleasant gales and fine weather working to the windward nothing in sight Sat by Obs 5.49 South Long by Chronometer 103.48 West

Monday
October
10th

Light trades and pleasant working to windward and tacking ship as requisite employed grafting black ships on 30 ends this day Sat by Obs 6.40 South

Tuesday
October
11th
1836

These 24 hours Pleasant trades and the sky as clear as crystal standing South with all sail set at 11 AM raised whistles lowered 4 boats at meridian boats in chase

Cruising in the Pacific in 36

Wednesday
October
12th

Begins with light winds and clear weather at 1 PM took the boats up, did not succeed in fastening at 3 lowered for whales killed 1 at 5 took him along side and shortened sail for the night All here in our whale and stood to the South and so ends this day Sat by Obs 6.30 South

Thursday
October
13th

These 24 hours pleasant weather working to windward employed boiling in PM lowered for A whale did not fasten Sat by Obs 5.51 S Long by Chron 104.12 W

Friday
October
14th

First part moderate in latter part strong trades at 2 PM finished boiling and washed ship A ship in sight to the weather of us Sat by Obs 6.08 S

Saturday
October
15th

These 24 hours begin with fresh trades and clear standing South at 3 PM raised A large whale lowered 4 boats fastened to him and killed at 6 took him along side and shortened sail for the night at day light in the morning wore to the South and began to cut at meridian finished and stood South Sat Obs 6.13 South Waste Boat 80 lbs