

Ship J. Woodman

Tuesday
December 27th Winds & weather as yesterday employed copying the Starboard waste hauling and painting &c

Wednesday
Dec 28th Good weather painting ship watch on shore with their wives

Thursday
December 29th Painting ship &c

Friday December 30th Painting ship out side and in

Saturday
December 31st Finished painting

Sunday
January 1st 1837 Pleasant weather watch on shore

Brought off O'Brien on at Chive in 3 Monday
Jan 2nd 1837 All employed boating off onions Packed &c

Tuesday
January 3rd 1837 P.M. painted the stern truck in potatoes Onions & sand & middle part raining All all hands making preparations for sea latter part storm Good bye to the Fleet in habitants of of Dayton

Wednesday
January 4th 1837 First part light winds arrived United States Troop of war Peacock put in for provisions at 11 A.M. weighed anchor and stood out to sea under full sail at 30 miles this day

Thursday
January 5th Begins with strong N. winds and storm at 4 P.M. hauled up and hauled the J. G. Carter hauled the main course and single reefed the to P. M. with latter part moderate set all drawing sail without the chains tacked the anchors &c Course from N to N.W. Set by 4 "28 South

Friday
January 6th 1837 Light winds and pleasant weather Course N by N with the employed painting spars, saw blackfish porpoises and finbacks Set by 4 "28 South