

Ship Isaac Foreland

Tuesday

August 1st

These 24 hours fresh winds and clear sea ship to windward standing & saw nothing

Lat by Obs 6° 35' S

Wednesday

August 2nd
1837

Fresh gales and clear standing S E saw 3 ships 1 of them cutting a whale watches

variously employed
Lat 5° 10' South

Thursday

August 3rd
1837

Strong gales and passing clouds working to windward under single reefed topsails unbent the mainsail middle stich it and bent it again ~~down~~ to windward of us so under this day

Lat by Obs 6° 08' S

Friday

August 4th

Strong breezes and rough tumbling sea on all sides and steered S W saw nothing

Lat by Obs 5° 50' South

Saturday

August 5th

Burning off the ~~with~~ at 4 PM raised a sail ahead ~~hauled~~ sharp on a wind to the South at meridian standing S E ship under our lee & hailing

Lat by Obs 6° 28' S

On Wed 4th made off shore in 37

Tuesday

August 6th
1837

These 24 hours nothing in sight
Lat by Obs 6° 25' S

Monday

August 7th

More moderate P.M. spoke ship Eliza Adams Morse command
Lat 5° 45' South
Long 102° 00' West

Tuesday

August 8th

Moderate winds and clear weather working to windward under easy sail watches employed making a set of fore and main braceendants

Lat by Obs 5° 56' South

Wednesday

August 9th

These 24 hours light trades and clear weather saw 2 ships employed as yesterday

Lat by Obs 6° 00' S

Thursday

August 10th

Ships in sight no whales fine weather for whaling & Cruising in Lat 6 south and Long 102 West