

Ship Isaac Howland

Thursday AM stored down Jan^{ry} 25th 50 lbs of oil between clerk's saw a great body of finbacks
Lat 5 South
Long 103° 30' W

Friday
the 26th of Jan^{ry} Light air and beautiful weather finbacks to be seen in all directions

Lat 5° 22' S

Saturday Fresh trades and steam the 27th doing odd jobs on the rigging

Sunday
the 28th day of Jan^{ry} Light air in morning to it at noon steering away South at 10 AM saw a ship to the Sewerel of us

Cruising for whales in the Phoebe Give her some dick

Monday quite calm spoke ship Jan^{ry} 29th Deser coffin Berty 500 lbs condemned the inner bobstay and fitted a new one tightened the head rigging painted the head Barnished the waste steamed ship out side and arranged all things to our liking

Tuesday Fresh trades and steam Jan^{ry} 30th working to windward
Lat 5° 30' S
Long 104° 11' W

Wednesday
Jan^{ry} 31st employed making spun yarn knitting yarns & nothing on sight there has been no whales on the ground this month the weather has been good for seeing whales and I never working before Lat 5° 37' South