

Ship Isaac Howland

Wednesday Squally with heavy showers of rain spoke February 21st 1837 ships Ohio and Hero both of Abenacke the former 6 months from home tacking 150 lbs and commanded by Capt. Coffin the latter 7 m. on set tacking 100 lbs and commanded by Reuben Goy Sears we took so often it is hard to make any regular course of it

The Sun Obscured

Thursday Strong trades and Rainy Rainy Rainy 22nd day of Feb^{ry} and do whistles in sight and do hopes of there being more

The Sun transfigured

Friday First part rain heading to the S. E. at 7 were raised a school of small February 23rd m. raised a school of small whales towred and killed 2 of them at midday took them along side

Set by Obs 4:26

Long by 2000

Longitude 107° 00' W

Pounding rain squeals in pieces

Sunday 24th Feb^{ry} Pist cut in our wheel and stood south Middle part rain Latter part clear so on

Set by Obs 5:01

Sunday 25th Feb^{ry} Clear nothing in sight waiting to windward under easy sail

Set 7:39

Monday 26th Feb^{ry} Good whale weather at 5 P.M. raised a school of large whales towred and fastened to 1 of them and parted from him
 Latter part clear spoke ship Hero Goy

Set 4:15

Long 108° 00' W

by the Hero I. J. Howland's Chronometer

Tuesday 27th Feb^{ry} Rainy with fresh trades saw 2 ships

Set 5:40