

Ship Isaac Howland

Monday Fresh trades and the 8th of beautiful clear weather April we head up from S by E to N E Lat by obs 18° 00

Tuesday Strong winds at S & E the 9th of put the first reef in the Fore & Mizen topsails April The cooper and his mate making kegs and buckets for to sell in Talcahuano bent our main stay sent to so ends this day Lat 19° 30 N Long by obs 112° 05 W

Wednesday Strong trades and clear the 10th of weather employed on the April rigging &c Lat by obs 21° 05 S

Thursday Strong breezes and clear the 11th of all drawing sail set April the ship made in the main 1837 rigging rattling down the being the duty, sticking to the late Lat 22° 58 South
Heading up from S by E to N E

From Talcahuano bound to Thursday Commenced with light the 12th of baffling winds and clear 1837 weather latter part fresh N E winds and with now and then a squall A all broke out between decks and coopered 4 pipes of oil (fresh water pipes) Lat by obs 24° 05 S

Friday Begins with strong trades and the 13th of howling weather heading up April from S by E to N E latter part 1837 squally Lat 25° 19 S

Saturday Squally with showers of the 14th of rain single reefs in April Lo Pass
1837 heading up S by E Lat by obs 27° 47 South
Long by obs 114° 00 West

Sunday Strong gales attended by the 15th of heavy South swell all rose April reefed the F & Mizen topsails 1837 and hauled the Gile & Main course rode a new pair of wheel ropes Better part clear heading up N E Lat by obs 27° 47 South
Long by obs 114° 00 West