

Ship Isaac Howland

Wednesday 23rd of May Thick rainy weather wind at North

Thursday 24th Wind and weather as yesterday

Friday 25th Wind at south and clear. took a raft of fresh water along side and hoisted it in and likewise 4000 sticks of wood for the cooking use

Saturday 26th of May North wind and raining

Anchored in Fathesman Bay

Sunday the 27th of May Wind and weather as yesterday Arrived Ship Columbus Coffin Master sailing from San Luis with 1400 bl sperm oil & he put in for recruits and to stop A bad leak

Monday the 28th of May A southerly wind and clear all hands hard at work stowing water bladders & mending sheeting &c &c

Tuesday May 29th Took a small part of water along side and hoisted it in took in 15 bls Irish potatoes 50 pumpkins, dungs-hill fowls turkeys &c

Wednesday 30th A clear North all ready for sea A favorable the wind is all that is required mending the bow boat