

Monday Ship Isaac Howland Sept 10th 1838 Light trades and pleasant Course wth the Lat 16° 50' N

Tuesday 11th Wind and weather much the same as yesterday spoke Ship Mervin of L.B. Case Master with 1300 bl^{ts} sperm oil and 600 of right-whale bound to New Bedford

Lat 17° 20' North
 Long 50° 55' W

Wednesday The 12th 1838 In company with the Mervin steering wth

Homeward Bound

Thursday Course I wth wind light
 The 13th and weather steady Sept with lightning Lat 20° 08' N

Friday The 14th 10th September Spoke Ship Paris of small year 1838 Master from Batavia Bound to New York Laden with 400 tons of Sugar kept company with her and the Mervin and had a regular gun.
 Wind from the S.E. and light sharp lightning throughout the night Course wth the

Lat last 21° 26' North

Saturday Passed much the same as yesterday, shifted the fore and main topsails and fore course
 the Paris & Mervin (at Morician) dist from us about 2 miles Course wth

Lat last 22° 40' North
 Long by Chron 56° 00' West