

Ship S. Howland From A Whaling

Sept
22nd of Sept

1838

Moderate S.E. winds and pleasant weather steering W. We painted the lead boards stopt the Sun boys & the warship in sight of us

Lat Obs 30° 30' North

Long by Chronometer 64° 19' West

Sunday

Sept

23rd

1838

Light baffling winds and clear steering W. We spoke a Brig bound to St. Thomas West Indies name unknown spoke the Warship and made them a visit

Lat Obs 31° 30' North
Lat Obs 31° 30'

Monday

Sept 24th

Light baffling winds and Clouds Course W. S. W.

Lat 32° 8' North

Long 66° 19' West

Voyage bound to New Bedford 1838

Tuesday

Sept 25th

1838

Fresh S.E. wind and hazy morning Clouds Course W. S. W. Voyagers and studding sails set watches employed on various picking jobs saw several sails standing on various course the Ship Warship is in sight of us yet, a long distance astern

Lat 32° 58' North
Long 67° 08' West

Wednesday

The 26th 1838

Fresh S.E. winds and passing clouds all drawing sail set to advantage Course W. S. W.

Lat Obs 35° 04' North

Long by Loner 68° 34' W

By Chronometer 68° 31' W

Thursday

Sept 27th

1838

Light S.E. winds and fine weather Course N. W. W.

Lat 36° 30' North
Long by Chron 69° 26' W
By Loner 69° 45' W