

Ship C. Howland T. P. Swain Master

Friday Sept 28th 1838 Light Southerly airs and pleasant breeze S W the Waverly is in company with us

Lat 37° 34' North Long by Chron 69° 06' West
A W. Easterly current running

Saturday Sept 29th Light winds from S E to S W and passing clouds steering S W in company with the Waverly

Lat by Chron 38° 22' North Long by Chron 69° 20' West

Fall in with and took up A beautiful yawl boat

Sunday Sept 30th 1838 Wind at S W and squally with heavy showers of rain Course Course S W by N at 4 P M took in the studding sails and fore & main topgallant sails at 10 P M the wind shifted suddenly to the S W E and blew heavy hauled the main course and jib & fore & main topsails and sent down the royal yards latter part moderate and clear made sail to advantage at Meridian the wind at North by N up N W the Waverly off our lee quarter Dist 10 miles

Lat by Chron 38° 51' Long by Chron 71° 00' West

On the North American Coast

Monday Begins with light S W winds of once clear heading up N W
October 1st 1838 turned the reefs out of the topsails and set the main S. G. sail at 2 A M latter ship heading up N W E at Meridian quite calm

Lat by Chron 39° 00' North Longitude 71° 31' West

Tuesday October 2nd 1838 First & Middle part calm and clear latter part light winds from the S W at 10 A M

Boarded A boat and boarded the brig Pandora of and 48 tons from Providence bound to Savannah got a supply of fresh beef tobacco and late news papers we were in sight of water and I am thankful it is the shore of our own coast that causes it to be so

Lat by Chron 39° 35' North

Long by Chronometer 71° 21' West