

Bark Gabella Off The

Thursday March 16th

First part fine weather with light airs from S.W. with a large swell no chance to get out. Middle part light land breezes to light to get underway. Latter part at 6 A.M. fresh land breezes took the anchor and got underway at 10 the pilot left.

Friday March 17th

First part strong trade winds with much rain. Storing S.W. under all sail. Middle part double reefed the top sails. At midnight changed the course to N.W. the Island of Mowee in sight. Latter part fresh trades the town of Shinn in sight.

Saturday March 18th

First part light baffling winds and calm. Ship working in toward the anchorage. At 4 P.M. anchored in 14 fathoms of water. Latter part fine weather. landed some fish.

Sunday March 19th

First part fine weather. all hands employed in ship's duty in general. Middle and last part the same.

Monday March 20th

First part strong trade winds. Middle and last part fine weather. So ends. nothing more remarkable.

Tuesday March 21st

First part fine weather. Middle and last part the same. No more new detained here for Irish potatoes and no prospect of getting them for some days to come.

Wednesday March 22nd

First part fine weather. employed painting the boats. Middle and last part fine weather. got off a boat load of Irish potatoes.

Thursday March 23rd

First part fine weather. employed mending the inner jib. Middle and last part fine weather. So ends.

Handwich Islands March 1854

Friday March 24th

First part fine weather. employed mending the outer jib. Middle and last part fine weather. So ends.

Saturday March 25th

First part fine weather. employed in ship's duty in general. Latter part the same. At 10 A.M. a boat load of potatoes came along side took them on board secured the sails and hove short.

Sunday March 26th

First part light trades and fine weather. At 1 P.M. got underway and made all sail for Honolulu. Middle part light breezes from S.W. Ship under all sail passed down through between Molokai and Lanai. Latter part light breezes from S.W. Ship under all sail working up for the town. it being in sight.

Monday March 27th

First part fresh breezes from the westward. Ship under all sail beating up to the port. Middle and last part light baffling winds and calm weather. At 7 A.M. the boat went in to the town. ends with light breezes from S.S.W.

Tuesday March 28th

First part fresh breezes from S.S.W. Ship lying off and on at Honolulu. the boat came off at 3 P.M. with a load of potatoes. the Capt on shore. Middle and last part strong breezes from S.W. Ship under double reefed top sails lying off and on. to rigging to get the Capt off. the wind blowing on shore with a large swell.

Wednesday March 29th

First part calm with a heavy swell. At three P.M. breezes up fresh from S.W. double reefed the top sails. At sun down the weather being bad and blowing strong attended with thunder and lightning. kept off to the S.W. and ran between Molokai and Kahoala. Latter part moderate made all sail. wind S.W. with much swell.