

Cruising

Wednesday June 11th 79
With moderate weather latter part - breeze saw himbucks

Thursday 12th

Fresh breeze from the West-nothing of note occurred this day Lat-38° 03' Lon 82° 40'

Friday 13th

With strong breeze and thick weather. Mid part - blowing heavy and raining. Latter part moderately calm

Saturday 14th

Strong breeze from the N. stowed away our second set of sails. Nothing more of note

Sunday 15th

Breeze from the West-Mid & latter part - blowing a moderate Gale from the Westward

Monday 16th

With strong winds and rugged vessel under cover of sails nothing more of note

Tuesday 17th

With strong West winds and frequent squalls of rain. Mid & latter part - baffling nothing more of note

Cruising

Wednesday June 18th 79
Breeze from the West - with squalls. Mid & latter part - blowing a Gale stowed the top & sail

Thursday 19th

Blowing a Gale. Mid part - moderate latter part - calm sent the spanker off down for repairs

Friday 20th

Calm and light - gale from the N. E. & S. W. repaired at night in spanker off again. The second Gale took in two days.

Saturday 21st

With moderate breeze from the Westward set up back ropes. wedged the top boom in cap and done several other jobs

Lat-36° 53'
Lon 89° 58'

Sunday 22nd

Fresh breeze from the E the greater part of this day vessel steering into E. S. E.

Lat-31° 36'
Lon 88° 43'

Monday 23rd

Wind hauled into the E vessel steering into the E nothing of note occurred