

The Island of St Pauls
Ship James Edward from sixty four days

Remarks on board Friday
Dec 5th

commences strong winds from SW rough sea steering SE under short sail Draps & blunders in company and no pinbacks watches employed in main top mizzen top sail middle & latter part from gales from SW & rough sea attended gulls of rain at day light made short sail covers all at ten a.m. bent mizzen top sail so End

Lat 53 45.50
Long 68 45

Remarks on board Monday
Dec 8th

commences fresh winds from SW & rough sea ship under easy sail steering Eastward. at sun set took in sail here to to on starb tack middle & latter part strong gales at day light steered SE & rough sea watches employed in ships duty saw no of pinbacks & ends this day winds warm

Lat 54 04
Long 72 10

variation 24 day Westerly

Remarks on board Saturday
Dec 6th

commences strong winds from SW attended with squalls of rain very sea cover all under short sail watches employed in ships duty at sun set took in sail for the night hoists on lark tack middle & latter part strong gales from SW attend with rain here to drifting to SE

Lat 54 30
Long 69 20

Remarks on board Tuesday
Dec 9th

first part strong gale rough sea steering SE under double reefed main top sail & fore fore course at sun set here to close reefed the main top sail hoists fore course winds from SW cloudy weather middle & latter part fresh gales from SW cloud weather at day light made sail steered ESE large swell running from SW saw number of pinbacks

Lat 55 00
Long 75 00

variation 24 day Westerly

variation 24 Day Westerly

Remarks on board Sunday
Dec 7th

first part strong gales from SW to SW here to on lark tack under close reefed main top sail at 3 o'clock here were ship and made fore course middle & latter part more moderate at day light made easy sail steered to ESE
watches employed in ships duty

Lat 54 00 Long 70 40

Remarks on board Wednesday
Dec 10th

commences strong wind from SW thick smoky weather rough sea covers all at 3 o'clock the dog turned mad had to kill him saw no of pinbacks at sun set took in sail here to on lark tack middle & latter part strong winds at day light made all sail thick weather covered part winds north all here employ in shipping water from fore hole to after hole

Lat 54 40
Long 77 20 at 5 pm