

1908 March 1908

Thursday<sup>19</sup>

First Part of this day began with strong breeze and squally weather. Later heading N by E under all sails but while blowing hard and heavy rain that blowed our mainsails to pieces. Later light breeze and cloudy sky. Doing various little jobs also. Hoist staysails. Topped up.

Lat
Long.

Friday<sup>20</sup>

This day squalls and rain. Later heading N by E under short sails. Crew doing sheep and pork. Later rain.

Lat
Long.

Saturday<sup>21</sup>

Squally weather and heavy rain. Later heading N by W under all sails. Crew doing various jobs. Later rains 15 miles out from the Equator.

Lat
Long.

Sunday<sup>22</sup>

This day squalls and lots rain. Later heading N.W. with N.E. trade. Doing nothing at all. Later same.

Lat
Long.

1908 March 1908

Monday<sup>23</sup>

First Part of this day began with fresh breeze and pleasant weather. Later heading N.W. under short of her sails. Crew doing various small jobs on deck. Saw steamer. Later same weather.

Lat
Long.

Tuesday<sup>24</sup>

This 24 hours squally weather and some rain. Later heading N.W. with short sails. Struck one porpoise. Later same as first.

Lat
Long.

Wednesday<sup>25</sup>

Squally and lots of rain. Not wind at all. Only enough wind to steer. Later same. Also saw Whaling Bark. Guessed to be Bertha.

Lat
Long.

Thursday<sup>26</sup>

Light breeze and hazy weather. Later steering N.W. under short of her sails. Saw whale in sight.

Lat
Long.