

1908 July 1908

Sunday 26

Whales

First Part of this day comes with calm and clear weather. Sehr laying round and gunned swept and she raised school of sperm whales and. Lowered after whales also we lower down. But there was going very fast haven't any winds. Latter same

Lat. 37.0

Long. 73.12

Monday 27

These day began with calm and clear weather. Sehr laying to soon in morning about 4.30 raised school of sperm whales of deck close to the ship and got boats ready and lower for them. S.B. got on top of whale and darted the iron but mistaken ~~while chase them~~ but going to fast also. Then swept got whales. Latter squalls and little rains.

Lat. 36.56.

Long. 73.16.

Tuesday 28

These day began with light breezes and squalls. Sehr cruising under short sails. Same 3 whales in sight. Latter. Same weather. Employed in ship duty.

Lat. 36.55.

Long. 73.07.

1908 July 1908

Wednesday 29

These day began with strong breezes and squally weather. Sehr cruising under short sails. Sunbeam and Andrew Hicks in sight. Latter part of the day. Same weather. Saw 4 steamers and 3 sailing vessel.

Lat. 36.40.

Long. 73.30.

Thursday 30

These day blowing fresh. N.E. winds. Sehr cruising under short sails. crew Employed in ship duty. Saw few sails in sight. Andrew Hicks in sight. also Broke out 8 Bags of flour. Latter part of day. rains and squalls.

Lat. 37.00.

Long. 73.24.

Friday 31

The Last day of July blowing fresh. gale winds and heavy rains. Sehr laying to on port tack. Saw 3 steamers. crew doing nothing. Latter same kind of weather still raining.

Lat. 00.00.

Long. 00.00.