

72

Brig Kate Cory Cruising
The windward bark had fine breeze steering south south east So ends Latitude 25° 00' N Long 24° 21' W

Remarks on board Friday September the 27th 1861

Commenced with fine breeze from the westward and gave water. The watch employed in ordinary duty. At sundown look in the fore top-sail within the wind heading south by west latter part of the night headed up strong at day light headed out for provisions and water latter part strong breeze So ends Latitude 25° 00' N Long 24° 21' W

Remarks on board Saturday September the 28th 1861

Commenced with strong breeze from west south west and raged rather saw breezes to the board stand off for them proceed to the gun-ports the watch employed in ordinary duty. At sundown look in the fore top-sail within the wind heading south at eleven o'clock the wind shifted round north east and commencing raining at nine o'clock the lighted up some mangle the mast heads at the fore top-sail. Latter part fresh breeze nothing in sight steering south So ends no latitude

Remarks on board Sunday September the 29th 1861

Commenced with fresh breeze from north east and fair within the watch employed in ordinary duty at sundown look in sail spoke the Bark DeBanchini of Providence had just lucien a fifty barrel whale heading south east by the wind at ten o'clock look in the fore top-sail and pursuit

DeBanchini 175 tons

73

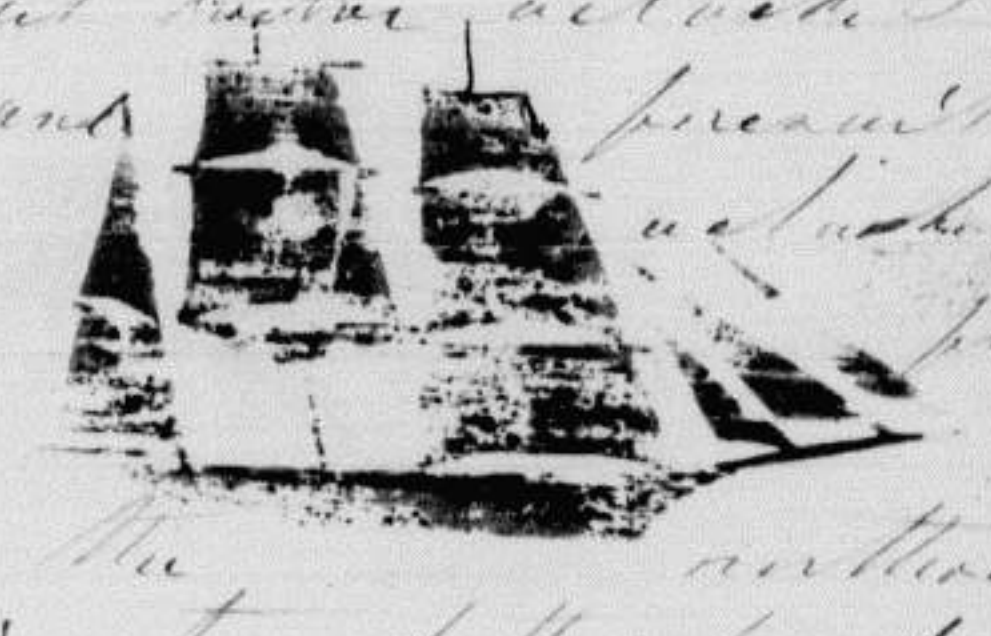

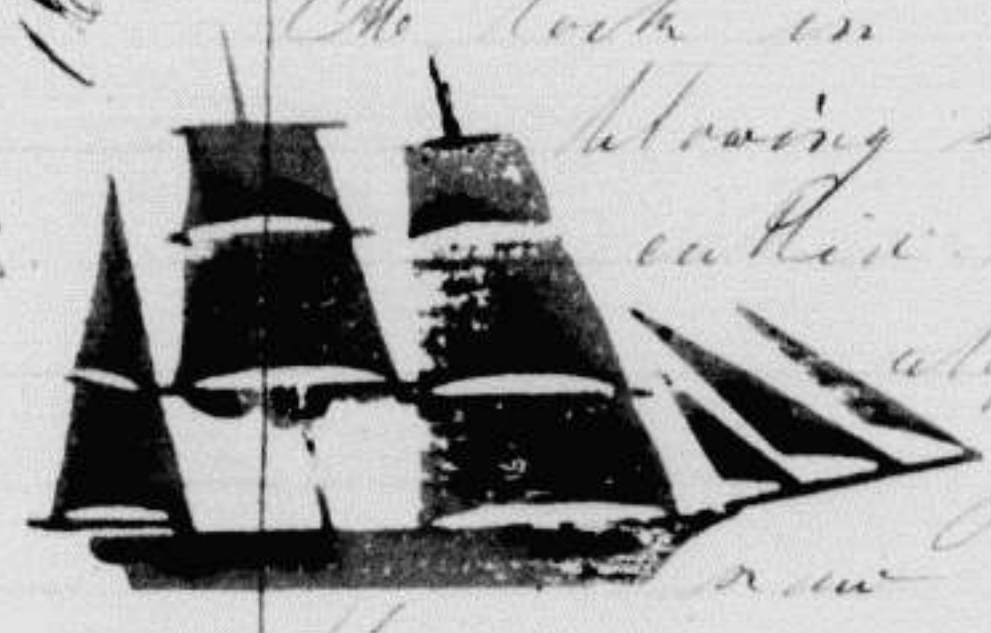

Brig Kate Cory Cruising 73

At daylight set the fore-sail and top-sail at ten o'clock spoke the DeBanchini and gained with her latter part fair within So ends Latitude 25° 48' N Longitude 24° 50' W

Remarks on board Monday September the 30th 1861

Commenced with fine breeze from the northward and fair within at five o'clock the Bark Robert Thorne of Port Bedford gained with her she has 160 bbls at sundown left of gaining and headed to the southward at twelve o'clock the look in the fore top-sail and pursuit blowing strong at nine o'clock the men seen at the mast head from the northward saw the bark lying two miles off blowing a gale So ends Latitude 26° 02' N Long 24° 40' W

Robert Thorne 160

Remarks on board Tuesday October the 1st 1861

Commenced with a gale of wind from the northward and a heavy rain at five o'clock the bark seen to the eastward
at six o'clock the bark
seen to the eastward
balanced down the hatch still blowing a gale latter part of the night miraculous a little at nine o'clock the bark
seen to the eastward
south south east and at the fore-sail made the mast heads latter part blowing strong and squally and raged within So ends Latitude 26° 02' N Long 24° 27' W

Remarks on board Wednesday October the 2nd 1861

Commenced with strong breeze from the northward and squally and raged within at the fore top-sail