

On Thursday morning went up the Hudson and enjoyed the scenery very much, went to Albany then to Saratoga, Met Allen there of Boston, then came down on the Harlem Road to Sharon. Stayed till Friday 11³⁰ then continued on Harlem R Road to Mr Sedgwick's house at the Schoharie road to the house with him and in the P.M. went to a pleasant waterfall with W. & H. and staid till towards sunset; then went home had a fire over it till 10 o'clock. In the morning took breakfast and then at 8³⁰ A.M.
I took the Cars on Housatonic R Road, through beautiful Scenery to Bridgeport; and took the train from New York for Providence via London and then rode on to Stoughton; and then to Providence & Taunton and found at the train had left for Wrentham about one half hour before we arrived. I then talked of taking a carriage they asked me $10.00 and I had a Colisee. I took it, at 6 o'clock and started for a walk to Wrentham. There was a fellow who worked in Taunton and he came along with me; we walked and rested some; and at 12 M.
I was at Rodman's farm - waited till all the folks got home from meeting, and then marched home one hour, arrived at home about 1³⁰ P.M. took a good bath immediately, and took a good rest and felt as well as ever, the next day. From day of so ended that trip to New York & Albany & C. perhaps I got home by 12³⁰ o'clock a fine day it was.

Washington Unfurled the Union Flag for the first time, over the Camp at Cambridge on the 1st of Jan^y 1776 - 13 - Alternate White & Red stripes

It was in 1853 (July) that Capt Ingraham of the U States did that act; of ^{gallantly} demanding the person of Martin Koszta: Who had taken legal measures to become a citizen of the U States who while in Smyrna was ~~seized by order of the Austrian Consul~~ seized by order of the Austrian Consul General and taken on board of an Austrian Brig. Capt Ingraham of the Fleet of New Orleans demanded Koszta's release, upon their refusal he cleared his ^{ships} decks for action and threatened to fire on the Brig if he ^{Koszta} was not given up in a certain time named the Austrian yielded - The effect was approved by the Government of the U States Koszta - noted him and an elegant General
