Byron's Giaour

So mingles the mind remorse both risen,
Unfit for Earth, undom'd for heaven,
Darkness above, despair beneath,
Around it flame, within it death!
And fire unquench'd, ungranchable,
Around, within, thy heart shall dwell;
Nor ear can hear nor tongue can tell
The tortures of that inward hell!

Othello

Act 4th Scene 2

Oh, heaven, that such companions thou'ldst unfold;
And put in every honest hand a whip,
To lash the rascal naked through the world,
Even from the east to the west

Hamlet Scene 3rd Act 4th

"Who like not in their judgment, but their eyes";
Same

What is a man,
If his chief good, and market of his time,
Be, but to sleep, and feed? a beast no more.
Sure, he, that made us with such large discourse,
Looking before and after, gave us not
That capability and godlike reason
To just in us unus'd

Ry. Juliet Act 3rd Scene 5th are those words:

Some grief shows much of love;
But much of grief shows still some want of it

Scene 4 Act 2nd "Twelfth Night"

She never told her love,
But let concealment, like a worm iⁿ the bud,
Feed on her damask cheeks: She kind iⁿ thought;
And, with a green and yellow melancholy,
She sat like patience on a monument,
Smiling at grief - Was not this love, indeed?

Home -

No birds within one nest;
No hearts within one breast;
No souls within one fair,
Firm league of love and prayer,
Together bound for aye, together blest

An ear that waits to catch
At hand upon the latch; rest
At step that hastens its sweet steps to ruin;
A world of care without
A world of strife shut out;
A world of love shut in.

Hamlet Act 3rd Scene 2nd

Hamlet says to Horatio - : for thou hast been
As one, in suffering all, that suffers nothing;
A man, that fortunes buffets and rewards
Has taken with equal thanks, and best are those,
Whose blood and judgment are so well commingled,
That they are not a pipe for fortune's finger
To sound what stop she please;
