

Ship Kensington crossing into the Atlantic

Friday Aug the 11th 1861

Remarks are heard from men at night
and from the N. & Middle & latter part Wind from the S.W. very light latter part fair clear and serene with light breeze from the S.W. & fresh ship can't get light enough to sail this day
Sail by abt 3 30 AM
Sail by Chron 35 34 1/2

Saturday Aug the 12th 1861

Remarks are heard from men at night
from the S.W. I first Weather of shift to S. latter part Wind from the N.W. but in light and a N. breeze with a merchant ship sail & reached shore for there
and there no more so ends this day
Sail by abt 3 30 AM
Sail by Chron 35 34 1/2

Sunday Aug the 13th 1861

Remarks are heard from men at night
from the S.W. I first Weather of shift to S. latter part Wind from the N.W. but in light and a N. breeze with
a merchant ship sail & reached shore for there
and there no more so ends this day
Sail by abt 4 00 AM
Sail by Chron 35 34 1/2

Monday Aug the 14th 1861

Remarks are heard from men at night
from the S.W. I first Weather of shift to S. latter part Wind from the N.W. but in light and a N. breeze with
a merchant ship sail & reached shore for there
and there no more so ends this day
Sail by abt 4 00 AM
Sail by Chron 35 34 1/2

Tuesday Aug the 15th 1861

Remarks are heard from men at night
from the S.W. I first Weather of shift to S. latter part Wind from the N.W. but in light and a N. breeze with
a merchant ship sail & reached shore for there
and there no more so ends this day
Sail by abt 4 00 AM
Sail by Chron 35 34 1/2

Ship Charles W. Peterson

Wednesday Aug the 16th 1861

Remarks are heard from men at night
from the S.W. I first Weather of shift to S. latter part Wind from the N.W. but in light and a N. breeze with
a merchant ship sail & reached shore for there
and there no more so ends this day
Sail by abt 4 00 AM
Sail by Chron 35 34 1/2

Thursday Aug the 17th 1861

Remarks are heard from men at night
from the S.W. I first Weather of shift to S. latter part Wind from the N.W. but in light and a N. breeze with
a merchant ship sail & reached shore for there
and there no more so ends this day
Sail by abt 4 00 AM
Sail by Chron 35 34 1/2

Friday Aug the 18th 1861

Remarks are heard from men at night
from the S.W. I first Weather of shift to S. latter part Wind from the N.W. but in light and a N. breeze with
a merchant ship sail & reached shore for there
and there no more so ends this day
Sail by abt 4 00 AM
Sail by Chron 35 34 1/2

Saturday Aug the 19th 1861

Remarks are heard from men at night
from the S.W. I first Weather of shift to S. latter part Wind from the N.W. but in light and a N. breeze with
a merchant ship sail & reached shore for there
and there no more so ends this day
Sail by abt 4 00 AM
Sail by Chron 35 34 1/2

