

August Whip Hususoff

Sunday Middle I. Tuber, part Calm, calm, calm & foggy Dear Sarah how I would like to be with you today. Sarah it seems to me that if never can leave you again I have been looking at your miniature it makes me sick, yes sick to think how long I shall have to remain away from you. Once more Good Night
No Ends

Monday August 2

First part
Calm and foggy what little air there is. A storm the N.E.
Plenty of grey backs in sight
Middle part Put off the boats for a whale without success. The fog, a clearing off. At 12 o'clock land bearing S.W. and ice.
A few sails in sight was lost whale slowed down 150 lbs oil we have now 800. Latter part Put off the boats for whales without success. No Ends

Tuesday August 3

First part
Light airs from the Southward foggy weather plenty of ice, Macrussers and scamperdowns in sight
Middle part
Thick fog. Good night Dear Sarah
I think of you often.
Latter part
Calm & foggy Nothing to be seen. Light fog fog fog. No Ends

Capt A Pierce

Wednesday August 4

Lat
Long

First part
Calm until 4 o'clock then moderate breezes from the Eastward the fog cleared up & sails in sight ice and land. Middle part Spoke the Ship Hansa of Bremen 5 whales clear weather.

Latter part
Put off the boats for whales the largest struck one and took him along side the waist boat killed him
No Ends

Thursday August 5

Lat 67.15
Long 171.10
West

First part
Light breezes from the Eastward with fog squalls. Erupt in cutting Put off one boat for a whale without success.

Middle part
Put off one boat for a whale without success. Erupt in cutting &c.

Latter part
Put off the boats for whales
The waist boat struck one
No Ends

Friday August 6

Lat
Long

First part
Light breezes and changeable killed the whale and took him along side and commenced cutting ice all around. Spoke the Ship Magain 14 whales. Middle part

Finished cutting. Latter part Erupt in cutting. Put off one boat for whales without success.
No Ends