

Oct Ship Hubusoff

Thursday Oct 7

First part

Blowing a gale from the Eastward
Lat 41.00 look in the fore sail jib and Long 172.12 mainsail the ship heading S E

Middle part

Took in every thing but storm sails. Blowing almost a hurricane Carried away the fore topmast staysail

Lat 41.00

A little more moderate
Henry Werling died about 10 minutes before 12 o'clock with the Plague
He had been sick several months

No Ends

Friday Oct 8

First part

The gale continues from the N E with small rain Middle part

The same

Lat 41.00

Lat 41.00 The fore sail and close reef fore
Long 172.12 top sail the ship steering S E
At 8 o'clock hauled up the mainmast set the ensign and buried Henry Werling he belonged in Utica

No Ends

Saturday Oct 9

First part

Blowing a gale from the North the ship course S E by East under close reef fore & main top sails and foresail Middle part

Much the same

Lat 41.00

Lat 41.00 More moderate set single reef
Long 172.12 main top sail and main top gallant sail

No Ends

Oct Capt A Pierce

Sunday Oct 10

First part

Lat 41.00 Strong breezes from the North
Long 172.12 the ship steering S E by E

Middle part

Lat 41.00 The same

No Ends

Monday Oct 11

First part

Lat 41.00 Strong breezes from the N E Long 172.12 the ship steering S E with all sail set Middle part

The same

Lat 41.00

Moderate breezes set top gallant studding sail &c.

No Ends

Tuesday Oct 12

First part

Moderate breezes from the N E
the ship course S E with all sail set Eng in various duties

Lat 41.00

Middle part

Lat 41.00 The same the Capt and myself has Long 172.46 had a long argument tonight about Gen Jackson &c

Lat 41.00

Eng in mending the fly jib &c

No Ends

Wednesday Oct 13

First part

Lat 41.00 Moderate breezes from the N E
Long 172.12 the ship by the wind

Middle part

Lat 41.00 Strong breezes double reefed the Long 172.12 top sails

Lat 41.00

The same the ship heading
S E by S