

Saturday the 10th March

These 24 hours light airs and calm
Saw birds and small fish Ends

Satt By Ob 15^h 52^m S.

Low By Ob 149^h 39^m 30 West

Low By G now 149^h 32^m 30 West

" " " " " " " " " " " "

Sunday the 11th March

All these 24 hours light airs and calm saw porpoises Ends

Satt By Ob 16^h 02^m S.

Low By Ob 149^h 41^m 45 West.

" " " " " " " " " " " "

Monday the 12th March

These 24 hours light airs and calm
Shifted the jib foretopsails repaired

a main top of Sail. Satt By Ob 15^h 55^m S.

" " " " " " " " " " " "

Tuesday the 13th March

These 24 hours fine breezes repairing sails Saw a Ship to the Westward.

Ends day and night Satt By Ob 15^h 38^m S.

" " " " " " " " " " " "

Wednesday the 14th March

This day variable weather wind N.E.
beat a new main topsail Saw nothing

this day that reminds me of a whale

Satt By Ob 15^h 07^m S.

" " " " " " " " " " " "

Thursday the 15th March

These 24 hours fine breezes from the N.W.
Saw porpoises and birds repaired the main topsail Ends with a vigorous look out. Each mast lead

Satt By Ob 13^h 52^m S.

Friday the 16th March 1832

All this day fine breezes from N.E. to East with small squalls of rain. Saw nothing of the whale kind

Satt By Ob 13^h 03^m South

" " " " " " " " " " " "

Saturday the 17th March

These 24 hours commences and continues with fine weather a working to the Eastward

Saw nothing at all nor any like to see

Satt By Ob 12^h 27^m South

Low By Ob 148^h 01^m 00 West

" " " " " " " " " " " "

Sunday the 18th March

All this day variable winds from North to N.E. saw birds but saw no fish

all most mad and crazy Ends these 24 hours Satt By Ob 12^h 52^m S.

Low By G now 147^h 42^m 30 West

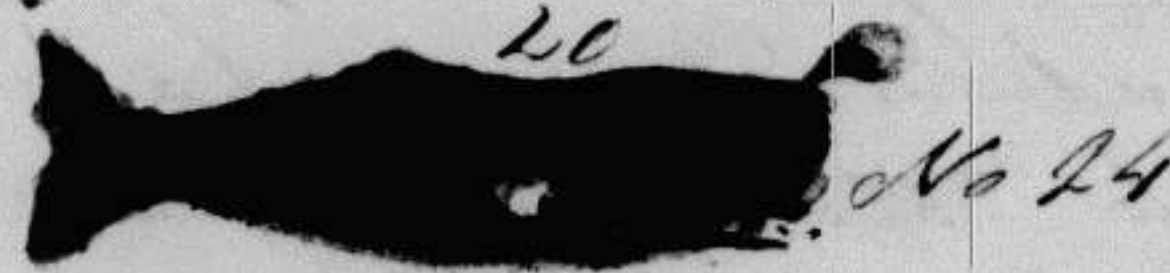

" " " " " " " " " " " "

Monday the 19th March

These 24 hours fine breezes with pleasant weather at 12 meridian Saw a Shoal of whales put off struck with 2 boats took 1 whale to the Ship Ends

Satt By Ob 11^h 49^m S.

No 24

" " " " " " " " " " " "

Tuesday the 20th March

This day fine weather finished sailing

Saw birds and porpoises Satt By Ob 11^h 35^m S.

" " " " " " " " " " " "

Wednesday the 21st March

This day fine weather Saw porpoises

Low By Ob 147^h 40 West

Satt By Ob 11^h 00 S.