

few in the distance. Mrs. Morey now begins to grow sick - and lies down as does also Mrs. Newman. Leaving the Captain to attend to their present needs. We will look around - and see who our Neighboring Consorts of.
We are now on the broad Ocean - in the Clipper Ship - "Leviathan", 880 Tons Measurement. Chas. H. Clifford - of Charleston, Master, aged about 37 Years - Passengers, are Edwin, Rugeman, and wife. George S. Cooper and wife.
Mrs. Morey - going to rejoin her Husband in Valparaiso - Mrs. Edy. Newman of Iowa - going to rejoin her Husband. - Mary Morey - a child of Mrs. Morey aged 6 Years - Emma Newman - child of Mrs. Newman - aged 4 Years Charles T. Rottin & wife - and last but not least - Charles, R. Son of the latter - making in all Eleven passengers. - The Crew. 1st Mate Mr. J. L. Evans 2nd Mate Mr. Levi - and. Sustain Sabin - besides Cook and Steward both Colored. - The Sailors are as near as can be judged young and unimpaired - but will probably have their duty on long. - The Ship is now making fine headway - through the water and at the rate we are now going will soon enter the Gulf Stream - Going into the Cabin - find that the Capt. has prepared some beds on the floor for Mrs. Morey - & Mrs. Newman - and says he will take them under his special care - for the voyage. - As a matter of course - say down!! - Chas. & I think as a little sea sick - - Cammy & Mary sitting in the Cabin perfectly still but giving unmistakable signs of sea sickness - - George is roaming around - trying to make himself comfortable but I think he is inclined to be sick - The Ship is now going before the wind - and rolls but very little - and with scarcely any motion - - The Store smokes very badly - and I have endeavored to smoke it up - several times - but when we have just - we have to endure the torture of Smoke - I presume we will soon be where the Store can be taken down - 5 PM Have had Tea prepared - but no one wants any - Myself the Capt. and George sit down - none of us but the Capt. seems to eat any thing - and we retire!! The Watchers are now chosen did not see the operation - and now - as every thing is secure leaving the watch on deck to take care of the vessel. we all retire - until "the

Monday - December 8th 1862 - did not sleep much during the night - as I was anxious to know and see what the day would bring forth - Arose about 7 1/2 at this being some what drowsy - WE are now near the edge of the Gulf Stream - The Capt. has broken his Thermometer with which he wished to test the water - as it is some degrees warmer in the Stream than out of it - The wind still holds fair and we are making a prosperous run - In the Cabin - no one notices the preparations for the different meals - and the conversation turns generally to the best - prescriptions for sea sickness and also - how long it may last - The Passengers continue to lie down and Mrs. Morey's daughter is very sea sick Mrs. Morey is the sickest one of all - and she throws up constantly - Mrs. Newman is also very sick - - Cammy has thrown up - once only - but himself with many false alarms - but cannot relieve their stomachs - George hears but very little to say is almost
