

Tuesday January 27. 1863.

52 day from N York

Latitude. South. Longitude. West.

Commenced with a Pleasant Morning. - Arose just in time to eat Breakfast - it - 8 AM. This is a long time to lay abed in this latitude when the day begins to dawn at 4 AM. - But nothing to do - is a better excuse than none. - Although plenty to do. - - Charley, eat his break fast with me. and afterwards. I had to drive him until the others eat. - Mrs. Mary. scarcely noticed me. on coming out of her room and from this circumstance imagined. and that rightly. - that the Capt. and herself had again made up their little quarrel. - A noticeable aversion to mutual conversation. struck me. which during the day increased. so that they scarcely spoke. - The day has been very fine and warm. - and rather uncomfortable of the two. In the morning soon after breakfast. - Came in my room and wrote under dinner. - then went to writing again. - - Command reading. - a new Publication called Les Miserables. - which alternately read. and wrote and wrote until. Supper. - This afternoon. was called on deck to see a school of Black Fish. - about 30. - They were about 20 feet long. and was quite playful. - After Supper went on the Deck where George. Mary. Cam. - Mr. Mann. - Mr. Evans. - & Charley. were sitting Cam was playing Chuguns. with Mr. Evans. - George was sitting Charley in a sling over through a block under the Protuberant yard. - The sun was setting. - The ship heading her course with a fair wind. - On the main deck. Mrs. M. - Mrs. N. - Emma. - and the Capt. was running and racing. Apparently on high spirits. - Mrs. M. came on the upper deck and tried to get Mr. Evans attention but failed. - The Capt. has now. Taken Mrs. N's Room. - and she goes on the room north of Mrs. M.
The Capt. at times talks to her about it saying that he had that room fixed for himself. and she should give it to me. - I believe the women do not know when they are well treated or not. - - Retired at 10 o'clock. -

So ends this day.
