

Bark Lexington Bound off Japan

Thursday the 3rd of October 1843

Commenced with light air and calm and on the 4th at night Middle and a light breeze from E and S and weather under all sail. Latter part the storm employed in sail. Morning S. and S. W.
North. S. E. S. W. Bar in 33 29 or

Wednesday the 4th a fine weather and a fine breeze from E. Morning S. E. S. W. under all sail and on the 5th at night under part in weather much the same.
Latter part some squally weather and light breeze from E. Bar in 34 28

Thursday the 5th fresh wind from E. S. W. and fine under all sail. Morning S. E. S. W. Middle part the same. Latter part light wind and fine weather.

Bar 30-25 or

Long 155 11

Friday the 6th light wind and baffling at night. Toward the E. Middle part a calm latter part wind from E. and fine weather.
S. E. under all sail and employed in running some of the ships this evening. Bar in 29 22

Saturday the 7th a fine breeze from E. S. W. and pleasant weather under all sail.
Middle part the same. Latter part strong wind from E. and fine weather. Bar in 29 24

Bark Lexington Bound in off

Japan
Thursday the 8th a fine weather and fine weather. Middle and Latter part much the same. Bar in 29 20

Monday the 9th a fine weather and fine weather. Middle and Latter part much the same. Bar in 28 20

Tuesday the 10th a fine weather and fine weather. Middle and Latter part much the same. Bar in 28 30

Wednesday the 11th a fine weather and
fine weather. Middle and Latter part much the same. Bar in 27 26

Thursday the 12th light wind and baffling at night. Toward the E. Middle part a calm latter part wind from E. and fine weather.
S. E. under all sail and employed in running
some of the ships this evening. Bar in 26 3

Friday the 13th a fine breeze from E. S. W. and fine weather. Middle and Latter part much the same. Bar in 24 08 or

Saturday the 14th a fine weather and fine weather. Middle and Latter part much the same. Bar in 22 48 or

Long 154 11