

April
Saturday 12th

P.M.

Lat noon 34.44 comes in strong wind from NE
Long 69.56 steering SSE saw finbacks
at night shortened sail heading E.N.E. morning started off SW strong wind increasing at 12 hours too Lat 33.21

May 27th cutting
The Winslow Whales
Lat 34-20
Long 69-29

Sunday 13th

4 P.M. comes in a gale from the N lying too Long 70.06 heading E.N.E. (night pumped ship one Lat 33-15 speller 150 strokes morning started off SWW.
Barometer 12 A.M.) saw several sail steering S.W. so early 29 $\frac{8}{10}$

Monday 14 P.M. light air from NW saw ought but at night shortened sail heading SW Long 1 P.M. run of and spoke a bark long 36 (9 P.M.) 69.45 at one A.M. wind from NW and rain hauled too W at 7 A.M. wind increased close reef M.T.D.
Barometer 8 A.M.) hauled F.T.D. at 7.30 took in F.T.D. lying under 29 $\frac{3}{10}$) close reef M.T.D. M. Spencer, F.T.D. by sail heading W by S at One 11 $\frac{3}{10}$ leaving a swell from NE. rain part blowing strong wind carried 15" wave ship Lat 32.4

Tuesday 15th P.M.

Lat 32.42 comes in blowing strong from Long 69.27 W heading S.E. under close reef M.T.D. Spencer
F.T.D. saw a brig heading NW at 4 pumped ship 150 strokes middle part fair heavy swell from NW at 8 A.M. had light air from SE overed to Lat Mer alt NW and increased double reef 30 heading S.E. by E 32-02

Wednesday 16th comes in heavy squall from NW of rain and wind at 2 P.M. moderated set more sail steering NW & W B saw a sail night shortened sail middle part fair latter Lat Mer Obs had some squalls of rain light winds from W 31-02

Thursday 17th comes in light air from W steering SE
Long 1 P.M. saw no whales gulf head pumped ship 150
69.05 middle part fair steering SE morning
squally latter strong wind from WSW course
E 18

Mer Lat 30.28