

Saturday 10 light air from NW steering
 6. plenty manouver nothing else night shortened sail morning light air steering ENE Lat by single Alt 34.44

Sunday 11

light air W by some showers of rain course E no kellers lowered two boats without success night shortened sail heading NE nearly calm

Lat 34.19 rem. light variable W wind calm showers of rain
 Long 49.38 saw Spanish brig steering E

Monday 12 comes showing most part calm heading NE night shortened sail raised latter pleasant wind NW saw a sail porpoises & grampuses
 Lat 34.32 Long 48.27

Tuesday 13 comes in pleasant wind NW course E by N saw kellers two sail in sight middle and latter strong wind from NNE at 9 AM were ship
 heading NW
 Lat 34.36 Long 48.11

Blackfish
 seen in the night
 heading ENE

Wednesday 14

Comes in fresh wind from NE steering by heading NNE under whole topsails night shortened sail two sail E rem a under part baffling winds NE to E on opposite tack saw Brinback made new line covers coiled spare line Lat 34.48 Long 48.41

Thursday 15 fair pleasant light NE wind heading NW by wind one sail in sight rem a under calm saw a sail running Lat 34.54 Long 48.39

Friday 16 calm light air from heading NE saw two schools grampuses night shortened sail heading NE rem light air NE morn saw B F lowered boats without out success came aboard raised sperm whales sent off two boats lowered them struck saved one lost a line came aboard Lat 35.08 Long 48.00
 heading NW

