

Sunday 22

Lat 32.08 Long 72.02

comes in a gual from NW wind shifting to SW at one light & NW blowing strong at 2 moderated at 3 spoken by ship Daniel Webster of Nant. At 10, cut 1500 bound home passed by a ship King at sunset & day heading SE were ship steering by NW at 10 spoke back Geo Washington of N.B. (47-53) Lat 32.08 Long 72.02

Monday 23

comes in strong wind from WSW steering by SE at 4 were & in 6 with the B. Gold mining horn, at sunset shortened sail were ship heading SE rapid rem pleasant heading SE Lat 32.39 Long 71.06

4 P.M. Lat 32.39 Long 71.06

Tuesday 24

comes in pleasant wind still tacked steered by SE at 2 P.M. spoke back Harmony of Charleston bound to New London from Virginia with oil bone on freight middle and latter Calen and light air from SE course W saw plenty Grampuses one sail in site Lat 32.41 Long DR 42.39

23 Wednesday

light & SE wind steering W saw Grampuses two and breaches & dis, empy rather. Lat 7 Kiggin ~~and~~ shortened sail heading SW & spoke ship D W let them have 24 gal oil got a sack of potatoes rem pleasant daying slack until 2 A.M. were ship N morning were saw white water going quick WNW ratted down star & riggin so cond, Lat 32.37 Long DR 48.21 cotton riggin that Lunar Obs 2 P.M. 48.21 DR 48.29

Thursday 26

comes in fresh winds from ENE & NW 5 P.M. left to the wind N by E, shortened sail NW night shortened sail heading NW & rem, strong wind vague steering by NW finished calling star 10 K. (31-47) Long 48.51

Friday 27

comes in strong wind from NE were ship steering by SE at 2 P.M. took in 3d, then left to 2d & 3d, rem. rising squalls from NE & E lying on open tacks saw por. Gramp 2, no mer Obs Long DR 48.51

Saturday 28

comes in a rain storm heading SE, middle part a gale