

1844
Ship Lion on Her Passage To The United States

Tuesday July 16th

Strong from the south steering S by E Middle the wind veered to the S by E later the same Lat 44.05 Long 44.15.30

Wednesday July 17th

Strong from the S by E on the wind to the S by E Middle later the same " " Long " " "

Thursday July 18th

Sea from the S by E steering S by E Middle and later the same Lat 40.49 Long 42.00.15

Friday July 19th

Light from the south steering S by E Middle and later the same Lat 39.37 Long 41.39.30

Saturday July 20th

Light from the S steering S by E Middle and later the same Lat 38.00 Long 41.00.30

Sunday July 21st

Light and calm from the E on the wind to the S by E Middle and later the same
Lat 35.6 Long 37.16.30

Monday July 22nd

Strong gale from the S by E at 2 pm veered away the fore top of the mast and later the same

1844
Ship Lion on Her Passage To The United States

Thursday July 23rd

More moderate from the south steering S by E employed in fitting the fore topmast yard Middle and later the same
Lat 33.58 Long 36.01.15

Friday July 24th

Sea from the S by E steering S by E employed in fitting sea sending it up Middle and later the same
Lat 32.53 Long 35.57.30

Saturday July 25th

Sea from the E on the wind to the S by E employ in mending the fore topmast Middle and later the same Lat 31.45 Long 35.52.30

Sunday July 26th

Light from the S by E on the wind to the S by E one paid in eight employed in enlarging the main topmast Middle and later the same
Lat " " Long " " "

Monday July 27th

Strong from the S by E on the wind to the S by E Middle the same later fine at 7 am the S by E hauled to the S by E curve S by E
Lat " " Long " " "

Tuesday July 28th

Strong trades from the S by E steering S by E Middle and later the same Lat 27.29 Long 32.39.15

Fine And Pleasant Weather