

Nov 27th 1846

The Skipper and Mate had a row I think both were to blame the Skipper for interfering with the Mate's duty and the Mate for undertaking to do his duty when he was not able I think there was black looks on both sides for several days previous but I don't know what it was all about

Betsy C. Haskins Lydia Burt

Betsy C.

This world is but a fleeting show
For many illusion given
With smiles of joy and tears of woe
Dewy light shine dewy flow
There is nothing true but heaven

Then I will clasp thee to my heart

And every care resign

And shall we never, never part

Oh! Thou, my all, that's mine

Then I will clasp thee to my heart

Then I will clasp thee to my heart, Cooper

And every care resign, Christopher Card

And shall we never, never part, Grafton Pass Co

Oh! Thou, my all, that's mine, New York

Ship, and Alexander George Howland owner

Ship, Anna Alexander New Bedford

Capt. B. Higgins, Bristol County

Own. B. Higgins, Massachusetts

Betsy C. Haskins, Betsy C. Haskins

Come to the lower I have shaded for you

Own. B. Higgins, Schodack Passacles County

State of New York United States of America

Come to the lower I have shaded for you and I will sing you a song

Command you may your mind from play every moment in the day

Beware and beware of blotting take care cockroaches are nasty things for they are in to every thing that they can get