

Friday Nov 24th Lat noon 19-51 S.
Long 21-38 W

This day comes with fresh trades from N.E. Every thing set course S.E. making time on our passage brought back of coal and back of Bread also filled on back with salt water. Middle and latter part very moderate N.E. wind Scher heading southered & Eastward

Saturday Nov 25th Lat 20-38
Long 21-08

This day comes with light baffling wind blowing from N.E. to E.S.E. Middle and latter part the same saw a merchantman bound in to the Eastward saw plenty of fishes and unbent the foresail and bent on the other one also spared the fore sail.

Sunday Nov 26th Lat 21-11
Long 21-24

This day comes with the very light air from about E.N.E. Scher heading into S.E. on port tack saw a fumbuck and fenshed making the foresail and put it down the sail pen Middle and latter part light variable breezy air and with calm

Monday Nov 27th Lat 22-04 S.
Long 19-30 W

This day comes with calm at sunrise got moderate wind from about S.E. by S. Scher standing a long by the wind on Starboard tack heading about S.E. by E. Middle and latter part weather very unsettled and with calm

Tuesday Nov 28th Lat noon 22-21 S. obs 44 P.M. 22-30 S.
Long 18-15 W

This day comes with baffling air from the Eastward at sunset got a light squall from N.E. but it did not last long having a hard time to get the Eastward as the weather and wind unsettled. Middle part light air from N.E. Scher standing S. by E & E. at daylight got light wind from the same quarter and with good breeze from same quarter. Jib topsail sheet unhooked and tore a hole in the jib took it in and fixed and set it again.

Wednesday Nov. 29th Lat noon 23-03
Obs 4-3 P.M. 23-09
Long 16-20 W

This day comes with fresh breeze from about N.E. Scher standing S. by E & E under all sail at dark died out calm again night stood again as wind does not give me 24 hours run Middle and latter part calm with cat tress

Thursday Nov. 30th Nobs

This day comes with calm middle and latter part crew employed doing odd jobs around deck

Friday Dec 1st 1911 Lat noon 23-10
Lat 43 P.M. 23-11
Long 16-02 W

This day comes with calm cats from different quarters Middle part calm with rain latter part moderate wind from about N.E. Scher heading about E.S.E.