

Monday July 29th No. Obs.

this day comence with fresh S.W. wind and squalls and rain the Sch. stands under foresail and maintopsail heading into the Westward at dark the same and this is the long Spall abed in the eve ever had since we came out from the island. pumps and lights attended Middle night the same day light set the foresail. later on breeze and squall rain took in foresail and set for mainsail later part the same

Tuesday July 30th Lat 33-32 N
Long 51-13 1/2 W.

this day comence with fresh S.W. wind and rough weather the Sch. standing under the foresails heading into the Southward and W. saw one merchantman and Sch. Valcay in sight at dark have thunder and lightnings and squally weather pumps and lights attended Middle night very moderate weather and wind is about W. S.W. at day light set sail and heading into the Southward later part saw Sch. Valcay and she spoke us.

Wednesday July 31st Lat 33-06 N
Long 50-42 3/4 W.

this day comence with very pleasant weather and wind from about W. S.W. we set sail and the Sch. heading into the Southward at dark the same gameded the Sch. Valcay Middle and later part calm Sch. Valcay having about 25 goods mollasses from us to be refilled at home

Thursday August 1st Lat 33-48 N
Long 50-43 3/4 W.

this day comence with calm the Sch. heading Everyways at dark the same pumps and lights attended Middle and later part very pleasant weather and Easterly wind the Sch. steering N.W. course with everything set

Friday August 2nd Lat 33-02 N
Long 51-43 W.

this day comence with very pleasant weather and Easterly wind the Sch. steering N.W. course with everything set. at dark took in mainsail and jib-topsail and kept the same course pumps and lights attended Middle night the same day light wind from the same quarter and saw Sch. Woodbeeff in sight later on raised one whale all eve was trawled Boats down and squared and got it the Captain manly got the whale himself the Mr. May the death and of the Margaret is willingly to do is work and so he took his place and go the work