

Friday August 7th

this day comence^{ed} with the very light air from about SE the Sch. heading into the SE. later on calm at dark the same and got three tidout and set for sail the Sch. heading SE pumps and lights attended Middle and later wind from the same quarter and beautiful weather the crew employed stowdown the oil

Saturday August 10th

this day comence with very pleasant weather and southerly wind later on squally weather and some rain took in mainsail and topsails at dark westerly wind the Sch. heading into the N. under fores and maintopsail saw Steamer bound into the East at Middle and later part quiet rough weather and rain wind from different quarter

Sunday August 11th Lat 32-20 N
Long 52-47 W.

this day comence with rough weather and wind from different quarters the Sch. have been on different tacks later on plenty of rain raised with weather but did not see anything more at dark took in foresail and jib: here too heading into the N.W. under fore and maintopsail Middle and later part fresh breeze from the same quarter set the foresail but down took in

Monday August 12th Lat 32-25 N
Long 53-44 W.

this day comence with very fresh breeze from East and rough weather the Sch. heading into the N.W. later on took in foresail and standing on port tack heading N by E. at dark the same pumps and lights attended Middle part the same later part moderate weather and wind from the same quarter

Tuesday August 13th Lat 32-33 N
Long 53-37 W.

this day comence with moderate weather and Easterly wind the heading into the westerly later on set mainsail took the jib topsail on deck to furl and put down on jib at dark standing into the North took in mainsail set maintopsail pumps and lights attended Middle and later part moderate weather and wind from the same quarter the Sch. stands into N. and W.

Wednesday August 14th Lat 33-24 N
Long 53-26 W.

this day comence with moderate weather and breeze from about East the Sch. stands into N. and W. under maintopsail and foresail at dark the same pumps and lights attended Middle and later part very moderate weather and wind from the same quarter the Sch. have been on different tacks hunting for the whales but nothing have been seen at this day