

Bark Mass of New Bedford in

Sunday Nov 26th 1843

There 24 hours moderate breezes from NW to NE and fair weather at 2 PM got off from Sunday Island after filling the boat in the surf and washing out one tub of Potatoes and some baggage got her through but Leakes had took her up and refused her headed to the South and West the 24 hours at 12 Mer Mc Canlies 7.6 line Wyeck 12 miles Bar on 30.00
Lat Obs 30-14 Long 178-45 W Cro

Monday Nov 27th 1843

There 24 hours fine breezes from the N. run off NW 1/2 then NW by compass carried sail through the night at 6 PM saw a sail to 14 kilometer on 30
Lat Obs 31-42 Long Cro 179-25 East

Tuesday Nov 28th 1843

There 24 hours very light breezes from the East cloudy hazy weather but falling down to 29.04 Lat 32-01 Long 178-09 E Cro

Wednesday Nov 29th 1843

Comences with light baffling winds from the East at 4 PM hauled out with breezes light at 12 Mid squally rainy Bar down 29.06 at day light hauled out WNW but put strong breezes at West tacked to NW at 12 Mer
Lat Obs 32-13 Long 177-21 East
Bar rising 29.07

in Pacific Ocean Whaling A Brownell Master

Thursday Nov 30th 1843

Comences with fresh gales from NW at 3 PM hauled out NW high sea from the NW middle squally but put more moderate with a bad and confused sea headed to the West shore Bar on 29.08
Lat Obs 31-26 Long a boat 176 East

Friday Dec 1st 1843

 Comences with moderate breezes had sea at 12 & 30 PM saw a whale homered at 1 PM at a boat 26.00 struck with the starboard boat killed him nearly out of sight to Wind Ward the wind left us at 3 PM turned him down got him a long ride at 7 1/2 PM Middle and lost foot light airs and variable with calms every bad smell from the NW ^{cloudy} hooked down at day light got him in and junk on deck have hoisted up for haling at 12 Mer Bar 29.08 7
Lat Obs 31-22 Long 176-00 Cro

Saturday Dec 2nd 1843

There 24 hours begins with light baffling winds from the NW clear fair weather got the bar tailed and comenced haling at 4 PM lay on the starboard tack Wind to the NW at 12 Mid squally breezed on at 11 AM heavy squall from NW stopped the haling took him 11 mil downed down at the sail at 12 Mid cleared off and blew a gale the rest of the day hoiled out the head at 10 PM lying under close reef at the sail and one line of the fore sail
Lat Obs 31-27 Long 176-04 East